- All expenses for all members of the household are to be reported in the diary.
- Explain that there are two options for recording each expense:
  1. Provide the receipt OR
  2. Record the expense in the diary (do not write expenses in the diary if receipts provided).
- Emphasize that the date of purchase should be entered in the diary and should be added to the receipt if it is missing.
- Emphasize the fact that "no spending" should be written in the top part for the days when the household did not spend any money.
- Explain that personal information on the receipts can be blanked out before putting them in the envelope.
- Review the list of easily forgotten items (in Answer Guide, page [27]).
- Encourage the use of a black ink pen to write on receipts and in the diary.
