

EVERY

BY THE NUMBERS
INTERNATIONAL
WOMEN'S DAY, 2023

WOMAN

COUNTS

On July 1, 2022, there were 19,572,198 females of all ages in Canada, just over half (50.3%) of the total population.

Source: Statistics Canada, Table 17-10-0005-01 Population estimates on July 1st, by age and sex.

WOMEN WHO ARE PART OF A RACIALIZED GROUP

According to the 2021 Census, almost 5 million women in Canada self-declared as being part of a racialized group.

Source: Statistics Canada, Census of Population, 2021.

WOMEN LIVING WITH A DISABILITY

In 2017, 24% of women aged 15 and older in Canada said they had at least one disability.

Source: Statistics Canada, Canadian Survey on Disability, 2017.

INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS

According to the 2021 Census, 929,605 women and girls in Canada reported an Indigenous identity.

Source: Statistics Canada, Census of Population, 2021.