Guide

- Authority: This survey is conducted under the authority of the Statistics Act, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, Chapter S19. Completion of this questionnaire is a legal requirement under the Statistics Act.
- Confidentiality: Information collected under the Statistics Act is treated in strict confidence and is specifically exempt from being released under the Access to Information Act.
- Purpose: Data are used to prepare statements on Canada's Balance of International Payments and Investment Position. Such statements are used as a major input in the conduct of monetary and exchange rate policies by the Government of Canada. Other uses include international trade negotiations, business planning, marketing and institutional research.
- Period covered: Please report as at the calendar year ended December 31, 2008. If reporting on the calendar year end is not practicable, please use your annual fiscal period closest to December 31, 2008 and indicate below.
- Filing of this questionnaire: A completed copy of this questionnaire should be returned along with the explanatory notes and financial statements (balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in financial position and statement of retained earnings) of each foreign subsidiary, associate and branch within four weeks of receipt to Balance of Payments Division, Statistics Canada, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0T6. If you need any clarification about reporting, please telephone collect 1(613)951-1876.
- Canadian reporting entity: The Canadian reporting entity is the Canadian company and its fully consolidated Canadian subsidiaries (as reported on the questionnaire BP-53 if applicable).
- Direct investment abroad: This includes investment by the Canadian reporting entity in 1) foreign subsidiaries, 2) foreign associates and joint ventures, 3) foreign branches and 4) non-capitalized expenditures abroad for mining, oil exploration and miscellaneous investments. The items of investment to be reported for these entities are defined on the last page of the questionnaire.
- A foreign subsidiary is a company incorporated abroad in which the reporting entity owns a majority of shares carrying the right to elect a majority of the members of the board of directors. A foreign associate is a company incorporated abroad in which the reporting entity owns at least 10% of the voting rights or is controlled by substantially the same shareholders. Extra-national companies (E.N.C.'s) should be included under foreign subsidiaries or associates. E.N.C.'s are companies incorporated in Canada with assets (except securities and cash) and business operations located entirely outside Canada. A joint venture is an investment undertaken by several parties. The Canadian reporting entity should report its participation in any foreign joint ventures. Foreign branches should be reflected using the net assets (i.e. total assets outside Canada less total liabilities to residents of foreign countries) of these operations located abroad. Miscellaneous investments should include agencies, warehouses, mining claims, real estate, seats on foreign stock exchanges, etc. Non-capitalized expenditures for mining and oil exploration and development abroad include all expenditures which occurred during the reporting period.
- If a foreign subsidiary holds investment in a secondary foreign subsidiary or associate, please report on the BP-59S. See questions below.
- Except for column 14, all columns are to be reported at values shown in the financial statements of the foreign subsidiaries or associates. Columns 1 to 9 are to be converted to Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect at the end of their fiscal period. Please indicate this exchange rate in the appropriate column. Columns 10 to 12 are to be converted at the average exchange rate for the fiscal period. Column 14, carrying value, reflects the value of investment in foreign subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures as shown in the financial statements of the Canadian reporting entity.
- Country code: Please use the enclosed coding list to identify the country where the foreign investment is located. If a country is not identified on the list, please write the name in full.
- Industry code: The principal industry of activity of each foreign subsidiary, associate and joint venture is to be identified in the appropriate columns of this questionnaire and the schedule according to Industrial Classification provided on page 5.

Definitions

Note:	The Canadian reporting entity consists of the Canadian company and all its fully consolidated Canadian subsidiaries. The foreign entities consist of foreign subsidiaries, foreign associates and joint ventures of the Canadian reporting entity.
Columns 1-7	From the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities, report only the value owned or held by the Canadian reporting entity.
Columns 1-4	Common stock, preferred stock, retained earnings and capital surplus as recorded on the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities
Column 5	Net long-term inter-company debt , as recorded on the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities, includes bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages, accumulated advances and all other forms of indebtedness intended to remain outstanding for a year or more. Net advances from foreign entities to the Canadian reporting entity should be shown as negative values (in brackets).
Column 6	Book value of long-term investment should equal the total of columns 1 to 5.
Column 7	Net short-term inter-company debt , as recorded on the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities, includes liabilities intended to remain outstanding less than one year. Net advances from foreign entities to the Canadian reporting entity should be shown as negative values (in brackets).
Columns 8-13	Report the total value of each item as shown in the books of the foreign entities.
Column 8	Total long-term liabilities and equity , as recorded on the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities, represent all long-term debt and equity of the foreign entities owed to or held by all creditors and shareholders. Inter-company accounts between foreign entities should be eliminated to prevent double counting.
Column 9	Total assets as recorded on the Balance Sheet of the foreign entities.
Column 10	Net income (loss) , as recorded on the Income Statement of the foreign entities, represents net income after income taxes. Please exclude extraordinary gains and losses.
Column 11	Dividends , as recorded on the Retained Earnings Statement of the foreign entities, represent the total dividends declared.
Columns 12-13	Sales or Gross Operating Revenue: Sales of goods and services (net of returns and allowances, sales and excise taxes) or gross operating revenue as recorded on the Income Statement of the foreign entities. Exclude investment income, realized and unrealized capital gains and losses. Special Note: Banks Gross operating revenue includes net interest receipts (interest received less interest paid on deposits, loans and securities), plus other operating revenue such as fees, commissions and other items of a similar nature as recorded on the Income Statement of the foreign entities. Exclude investment income from non-operating sources, unrealized capital gains and losses. Insurance Companies Sales of services include premium income, annuity considerations and income from other items of a similar nature as recorded on the Income Statement of the foreign entities. In addition, include investment income from technical reserves. Exclude investment income from non-operating sources, unrealized capital gains and losses. Holding Companies Total Income as recorded on the Income Statement of the foreign entities. To be considered a holding company, a company's equity in the net income of affiliates that it holds must constitute a majority of its total income and "in general" it must have a sizable portion (usually at least 50%) of its total assets invested in affiliates that it holds. Please refer to Industrial Classification provided on Page 5 for goods and services activities.
Column 14	From the financial statements of the Canadian reporting entity, the Carrying value of long-term investment is defined as the value recorded for the investment in the foreign entities.
