

National Construction Industry Wage Rate Survey, 2007

Questions:

- Q1 For this survey we are interested in full-time employees including seasonal workers and those who have worked at least one week full-time. Full-time is 30 hours or more per week. Please exclude owners, contract workers and volunteers.
- What is the maximum number of full-time employees your establishment employed at any time during the last 12 months for COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction work?
- Q2 During the past 12 months have you had full time employees working on COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction sites in the following occupations?
- Q3 Are the (selected occupation) unionized?
- Q4 What is the maximum number of full-time (selected occupation) that have worked at any time during the last 12 months on COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction sites?
- Q5 What is the USUAL number of hours worked per week by full-time (selected occupation), excluding overtime?
- Q6 For the (selected occupation), what is the STARTING wage for full-time employees working on COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction sites?
- Q7 For the (selected occupation), what is the wage MOST FREQUENTLY paid for full-time employees working on COMMERCIAL and INSTITUTIONAL construction sites?
- Q7c For the (selected occupation) who worked on COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction during the past 12 months, how many were paid the most frequently paid wage rate?
- Q8 For (selected occupation), what is the MAXIMUM wage paid for full-time employees working on COMMERCIAL or INSTITUTIONAL construction sites?