Review the following with the respondent:
- All expenses for all members of the household are to be reported in the diary.
- Explain that there are two options for recording each expense:
  1. Provide the receipt OR
  2. Record the expense in the diary (do not write expenses in the diary if receipts provided).
- Emphasize that the date of purchase should be entered in the diary and should be added to the receipt if it is missing.
- Emphasize the fact that "no spending" should be written in the first section of the diary for the days when the household did not spend any money.
- Explain that personal information on the receipts can be blanked out before putting them in the envelope.
- Explain the information that should be added to receipts.
- Review the two sections of the diary.
- Review the list of what should be recorded in the diary and what shouldn't be recorded.
- Review the list of easily forgotten items (in Answer Guide, page 21).
- Encourage the use of a black ink pen to write on receipts and in the diary.
- Remind the respondent to print.
