To all CFIA employees,

Employee involvement, commitment and participation are key elements of any quality-conscious organization and an employee survey is a valuable tool that can help organizations tap into the ideas, attitudes and perceptions of their workforce. In keeping with leading edge organizations, I have asked that a survey be conducted for the first time in Agency history to gather employee opinion.

Initiatives to improve our workplace, and therefore to improve service to Canadians, require a solid base of information. This survey engages you, as an employee of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA), by obtaining your valuable input on what is positive and what needs improvement in terms of your work, your career and your workplace.

Morale, productivity, commitment and organizational vitality can be substantially improved by listening to and addressing employee feedback. Therefore, I am committed to ensuring that we work together to act upon the results of the survey.

I am asking each of you to fill out the attached survey so that we can continue to improve as an organization. Your participation is voluntary and your responses will be anonymous and confidential. I urge you to make your voice heard.

Our business success relies on the individual efforts of all our employees. It is important that CFIA remain a stimulating, challenging and rewarding place to work. Your support is vital to achieving these positive results.

Thank you for your time and participation.

Richard B. Fadden
President
Canadian Food Inspection Agency
